

HOUSTON — Russell “Russ” Milam has joined the Hetsco team as its director of business development for the construction and fabrication business. Milam brings 20 years of experience in the industrial construction and fabrication industry for the refining and chemicals markets. His career has proven successful in operations and business development domestically and internationally for several key EPC firms supporting major oil and gas clients.

For more information, visit www.hetsco.com or call (317) 535-4315.